REMARKS RETURN TO CIA

St. Poelten.

1. On 26 July 1951, the hitherto unoccupied wooden barracks buildings of Camp Spratzern near St. Poelten (0 49/W 83) were reconditioned; new frames were installed in the windows and the roofs were covered with new roofing paper. The roads in the camp were also being repaired. All work was done by civilian laborers. Truck 50X1-HUM driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets, was parked in front of the camp; and truck 50X1-HUM driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets entered the camp. *
2. No activity was observed at the loading ramp of the St. Poelten railroad station. Only motor vehicle 50X1-HUM, driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, was parked there. A junior lieutenant seen in front of the railroad station wore red-bordered black epaulets, a stand-up collar of black velvet, and a rectangular badge of black velvet, bearing a golden winged-wheel emblem on his left upper sleeve.
3. A convoy of trucks 50X1-HUM led by small truck 50X1-HUM hauled about 130 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia, into the Rainer Kaserne. The trucks had come from the direction of Viehofen (0 49/W 83), where they subsequently returned.
4. No activity was observed in the yard of the Prinz Eugen Kaserne. Sixteen trucks were seen in the garages between the Prinz Eugen Kaserne and the Rainer Kaserne.
5. Motor vehicles seen entering or leaving the Franz Josef Kaserne 50X1-HUM passenger car 50X1-HUM and trucks 50X1-HUM left toward Melk (0 49/W 63), loaded with potatoes. All the vehicles were driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets.
